What is the 1000 Islands?

It's a place that not enough people know about but also a destination that has attracted visitors from around the world.

It's where families and friends gather along the water to dine, swim and cast a fishing line. It's where first-time visitors look in awe as their tour boat guides them past seemingly countless islands with mansions, lighthouses and fairytale castles. Even after a cruise, some find it hard to believe that a place with so many islands—1,864 to be exact—exists in North America.

For some, the 1000 Islands is zip-lining, kayaking and boating. For others, it's enjoying a cool beverage – made just down the road – while sitting in a dock chair, watching mammoth steel ships lumber by.

It's sunsets reflected by the St. Lawrence River and Lake Ontario. It's a place that once belonged to the Gilded Age rich that's now enjoyed by everyone.

For some, it's the familiarity of greeting their favorite B&B host-turned-friend. For others, it's the first time at a camp site they'll book for summers to come.

It's hard to sum up because there's few places like it in the world and the 1000 Islands can be enjoyed in so many different ways. You're invited to visit and discover what the 1000 Islands is to you.

ABOUT ANDREW KANE, FEATHER IN FLIGHT PRODUCTIONS, LLC

Andrew is from the Syracuse, New York, area and has been coming to The St Lawrence River since he was born and is a fourth generation River Rat, which is now extended into six generations. He owns a cottage in Thousand Island Park on Wellesley Island. His parents met as kids on the river; his dad's family owned a cottage on Round Island and his mother's family had one in Thousand Island Park. Andrew has The River in his blood. As many know: once you visit, it is hard to stay away!

As a professional photographer he has recently concentrated on photographing The River. In 2021 he published a hard cover coffee table book "My Love of The River" which contains 30 aerial photos. He sells his books and prints at www.featherinflightproductions.com.

ABOUT THE COVER

Island "groups" are found throughout the 1000 Islands region. The Summerland Group is in the United States between the St. Lawrence Seaway shipping channel and the international border. Grenadier Island in the background is in Canada and the Ontario mainland can be seen in the distance. Island groups foster a sense of community among seasonal residents and are popular among paddlers, anglers and swimmers.

Cruises

SCENIC BOAT TOURS

The most popular way to see the islands is aboard a boat cruise! Tours depart throughout the day to cruise visitors past fairytale castles, stately mansions and historic lighthouses. Tour boats zig-zag among the islands while guides entertain with true stories of pirates and bootleggers and point out homes owned by titans of industry and secret societies.

Cruises range from 1 to 5 hours; some include stops at Boldt Castle, Singer Castle and Rock Island Lighthouse.

You can pair your sightseeing cruise with a luncheon or dining excursion or enjoy a twilight tour that includes tastings by local wine and beer producers.

Be sure to check for themed-party cruises, fireworks outings and other special tours throughout the season.

Fall is a popular time to cruise because visitors are treated to a “mirrored-effect” of colorful fall foliage from the islands reflecting off the water. Cruising season fluctuates depending on weather but most tour companies start in late April and wrap-up in November. ■

Castles

BOLDT CASTLE

New York City hotelier George Boldt (Waldorf-Astoria) built this six-story, 120-room mansion as a gift to his beloved wife Louise at the turn of the century.

Her untimely death left the dream unfulfilled and the castle lay abandoned for nearly a century. The stunning restoration of the castle and other island structures has topped more than $45 million and leaves visitors-many who come back annually to see the progress-in awe.

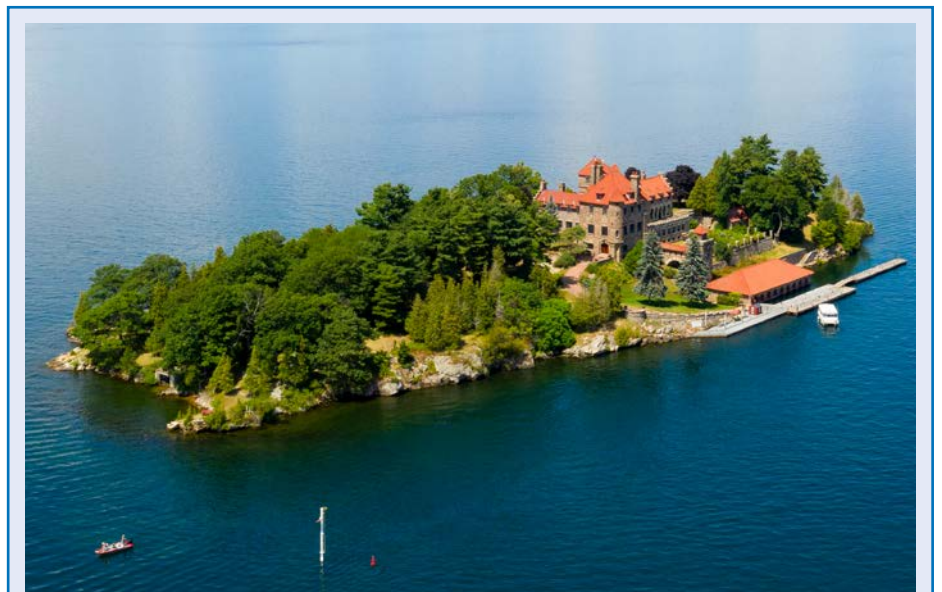

Visitors can also tour the Boldt Yacht House, home to a collection of antique boats including several owned by the Boldt family. A shuttle boat ferries passengers between Boldt Castle and the Yacht House every 30 minutes.

Visitors can tour the castle and other island structures at their leisure; tours are self-guided and aides are located throughout. The castle is accessible by tour boat and private watercraft and is handicap accessible. Visitors arriving from Canada must provide border-crossing documents. ■

Lighthouses

The lighthouses of the 1000 Islands once played pivotal roles in the safe passage of commercial, military and recreational boats through the St. Lawrence River and Lake Ontario. Today they stand as a nostalgic callback to this region's nautical history. You will find lighthouses accessible by automobile or foot along the shoreline as well as by tour boat or personal watercraft. The lighthouses are in varying states of accessibility – some you can walk the interior iron stairs to the lantern rooms – and each has a unique design to be enjoyed by lighthouse buffs and casual observers.

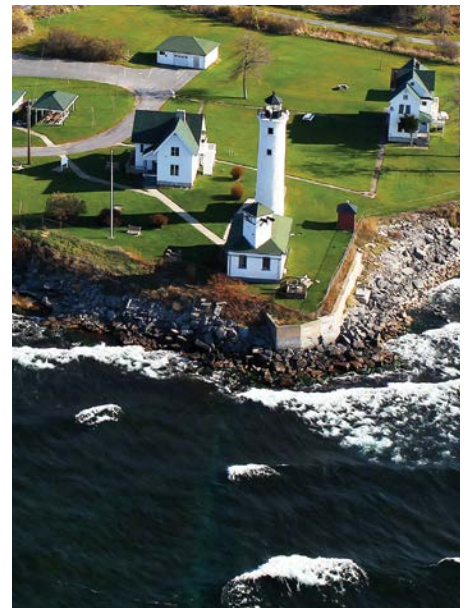

Boat tour passengers and private vessels should keep an eye and ear open – and a camera handy – to learn the history of each of these stoic towers. Some have been retired while others are still illuminated at night to assist boaters on their way. The lighthouses of the St. Lawrence River and Lake Ontario – part of the St. Lawrence Seaway connecting the Great Lakes with the Atlantic Ocean – were essential to providing safe passage for early boaters and travelers. We encourage all of today's visitors to not only take in their beauty but learn their importance in the 1000 Islands. ■

What makes an island...an island?

We actually have 1,864 islands in the "Thousand Islands."

To become part of that count, an island must meet two criteria: it must be above water 365 days a year and it must support a living tree.

The smallest is Tom Thumb Island, located just upriver - or west - of the Canadian span of the Thousand Islands Bridge. With just one tree and only a few square feet staying above water all year, Tom Thumb barely makes the cut.

No island is divided by the international border, meaning each is either wholly within the United States or Canada. That causes the international border to zig-zag across the water instead of forming a straight line between the two counties.

In some places along the St. Lawrence River, islands that are very close are in different counties. Each island has its own individuality with features such as stately granite cliffs, soft sand bays, tall dark pines and vibrant maple trees. It's a sightseer's paradise.

Most islands are privately owned; accommodations range from modern mansions harkening back to the region's time as a playground for the wealthy to modest fishing and hunting camps.

So if someone asks, remember two things: above water all year and at least one tree. Anything less is just a shoal. ■

Chasing Sunsets

Our majestic sunsets are an attraction exclusive to the Thousand Islands region and free to everyone that visits. Like watercolors in a gallery, each sensational sunset is a masterpiece, showcasing an arrangement from Mother Nature’s palette. Sometimes she paints the sky lilac and lavender fading into pastel pinks edged with the blues reflecting the surrounding lakes and river, other times she uses a golden-hued swath with lines of amber and auburn that stretches into gray-blue billowing clouds against a backdrop of black silhouettes, and every display is breathtaking. ■

Discover Tug Hill

Located just south of the 1000 Islands, the Tug Hill region is considered New York State’s last untouched wilderness. The Tug Hill is a vast mix of thick forests, valley farmland, gorges, scenic waterfalls and flowing rivers that offer a one-of-a-kind outdoor experience.

Few people live within the Tug Hill’s 2,100 square miles, meaning there are sparse crowds, hardly any traffic and no waiting in lines. Dozens of hiking trails snake through the region, perfect for hiking, snowshoeing, mountain biking and just breathing in nature. The waterways are prime for adventurous kayakers, canoe paddling and – in some places – swimming and boating.

Record-breaking snowfalls turn the Tug Hill into a snowy playground for everyone from cross-country and downhill skiers to dog sledgers and snowmobile runners.

Maple sugar shacks, farmers’ markets, diners and other staples of the rural lifestyle dot the Tug Hill’s many small towns and villages. For a slower pace – with a chance for high adventure – check out the Tug Hill during your next trip. ■

1000 Islands Parkway

along ST. LAWRENCE RIVER WATERFRONT, ONTARIO

The 1000 Islands Parkway is a 40-kilometre (25-mile) waterfront route with a parallel recreational trail. It offers spectacular vistas of the St. Lawrence River from Gananoque to Brockville.

Experience splendid aerial views with 1000 Islands Helicopter Tours or view the skylines atop the 1000 Islands Tower. Get on the water with City Cruises Gananoque, 1000 Islands Cruises of Rockport, Brockville's 1000 Islands and Seaway Cruises, or other private tours to see the region's islands and castles. Scuba divers will discover a treasure trove of wrecks and boaters will find river access via park and marina launches.

Camp on one of the 20 islands operated by the Thousand Islands National Park or enjoy one of the many nearby campgrounds. Right on the riverfront is Brown's Bay Beach and Picnic Area with a new playground, boat launch, picnic areas with barbecues, and beautiful beaches. Take in the 1000 Islands Rideau Canal Waterway Adventure series and enjoy the self-driving tours to Gardens, Bakeries and Foodie Shops. Visit Mallorytown's Coach House or Treetop Trekking at Canada's largest aerial adventure and zip-line park.

Continue eastward from the Parkway and County Road 2 to Brockville's beautiful downtown waterfront with Blockhouse Island, the Aquarium and Canada's first railway tunnel. Scenic views continue through Maitland, Prescott and Cardinal, allowing you to enjoy Fort Wellington and the Galop Canal. ■

Alexandria Bay

NEW YORK

Welcome to the heart of the 1000 Islands and home to Boldt Castle, the real-life fairytale island castle that hosts hundreds of thousands of visitors annually.

“The Bay” is your stop for fun in the 1000 Islands. Boat cruises, golfing, boating, fishing and more are why so many choose to stay here when visiting the region. Boldt Castle sits just off the shoreline and can be seen from many spots throughout downtown, including several hotels and resorts. Uncle Sam Boat Tours departs daily from a downtown harbor. They offer a variety of sight-seeing and dining cruises that stop at Boldt and Singer castles.

The calendar is chock full of events ranging from the Thousand Islands Motorcycle Rally and Bill Johnston’s Pirate Days to fall mainstays like Blues in the Bay and the Farmer’s Market. Winter warms up with the popular Polar Bear Dip, River Santa Festival!

The Bay has something for everyone. Visitors have access to scuba diving, flyboarding, mini-golf, go-karts, hiking trails, craft beverage tasting rooms and fishing charters. Looking for live music? Alexandria Bay is known for having more than 800 live performances from June through September. Visit a winery or distillery, rent a boat, have a picnic at one of the eight nearby state parks or along the waterfront. The Scenic View Park and footbridge to Casino Island is the perfect place to view the beauty of the St. Lawrence River. Whatever your heart desires, you will find it in the heart of the 1000 Islands! ■

Brockville

ONTARIO

City of the 1000 Islands

Brockville is blessed with stunning scenery, beautiful architecture, and history. Come explore!

The Brockville Railway Tunnel has been transformed into a FREE walking attraction full of dramatic sounds and lights. It's open April - November and received TripAdvisor's Traveler's Choice Award for 2021 as one of the top 10% tourist attractions in the world.

The Aquarium is Brockville's marine discovery centre whose mission it is to inspire curiosity through enriching and entertaining experiences. Immerse in exciting new exhibits for the whole family. Watch the live otters, Brock & Oliver and enjoy meeting the AQ's latest rescue animal, Justin Beaver!

Brockville is home to many festivals and events. The 1000 Islands Regatta brings hydroplane racing and fabulous music acts to the shores of the St. Lawrence. Ribfest, street festivals, and much more. The Brockville Arts Centre presents excellent live theater and music concerts. Visit brockvilleartscentre.com for the 2023 lineup!

Brockville has been recognized as one of the best freshwater scuba diving locations in the world, with century-old shipwrecks and artifacts scattered along the river bottom waiting to be discovered. Including the Brockville Underwater Sculpture Park, a unique scuba diving training experience.

For those who prefer a more relaxing, comfortable and intimate river experience on the St. Lawrence, a river cruise with 1000 Islands and Seaway Cruise Company may be more your speed.

Blockhouse isn't technically an island, but it's a great spot to watch the sun go down, view freighters & fish, or get a close-up look at Brockville's resident Tall Ships, The Fair Jeanne and The BlackJack.

Arriving by air? The Brockville 1000 Islands Tackaberry Regional Airport is your gateway to the aerial views of the St. Lawrence River and its world famous 1000 Islands. ■

Cape Vincent

NEW YORK

Tibbetts Point Lighthouse stands tall at the very edge of Lake Ontario where the Great Lakes system funnels into the St. Lawrence River. The lighthouse is an extension of Cape Vincent – the community where lake and river meet – and a place not to be missed by those who want to get an up-close view of this majestic waterway.

Cape Vincent is a historic community that takes great pride in its French heritage. The colorful French Festival is held every year near Bastille Day, the second weekend in July.

Visitors enjoy strolling through the Village Green for concerts, craft fairs, vintage auto shows and farmers markets throughout the spring, summer and fall. “The Cape” is home to a winery as well as a brewery, both serving locally made beverages. Events take place year round including a Sports Weekend in July which includes the Tibbetts Point Run, Cape Street Hoops 3-on-3 basketball and a cornhole tournament. There are outdoor concerts on Saturdays; the “Take a Stroll on Broadway” in August and Oktoberfest in September. Winter brings a Christmas Parade with Lights and the WinterGreen Volleyball Tournament.

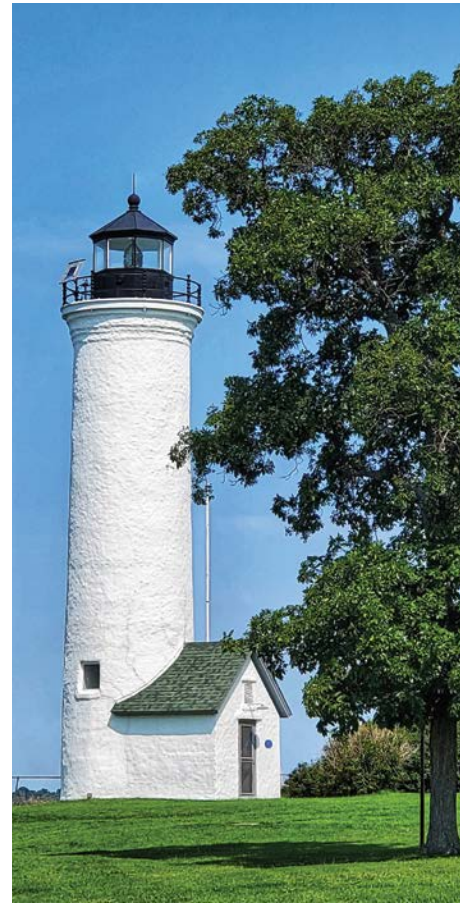

Some of the best freshwater fishing in the islands begins at Cape Vincent on the St. Lawrence River with easy access to Lake Ontario just upriver. The Cape is also a great place for bicycling, kayaking and paddle boarding.

Looking to stay in Cape Vincent? Options range from a historic hotel to longer-term cottage rentals along the shoreline.

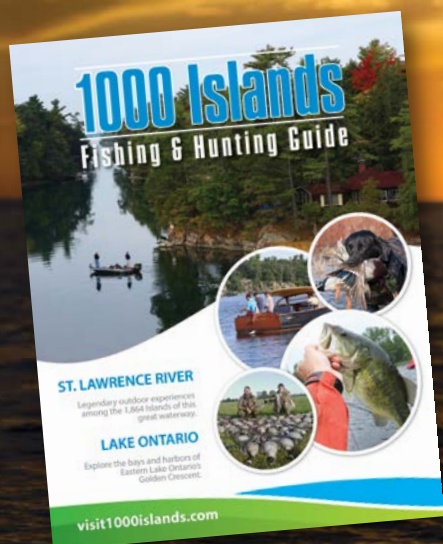

Horne’s Ferry, the only international auto passenger ferry crossing the St. Lawrence River to Canada, departs May to October. Take the path less traveled by hailing the ferry to picturesque Wolfe Island before heading to metropolitan Kingston on the Canadian side. ■

Chaumont-Three Mile Bay

NEW YORK

Welcome to the Chaumont-Three Mile Bay area located on the eastern end of Lake Ontario known as the "Golden Crescent." Chaumont Bay harbors some of the best family fishing on the continent! It is the largest freshwater bay in the world!

A unique bay with Point Peninsula and Pillar Point providing the entrance, it has rocky shores, varying water depths, weed and rocky covered bottoms, and good shoals for spawning. Its murky depths provide some of the liveliest, mouthwatering pan-frying bass, pickerel, perch, pike, bullhead, lake trout and salmon.

Sailing in the Golden Crescent is second to none, featuring two of the finest yacht clubs in the country. Local marinas provide the boat owner with sales and service for all of their needs. Bait is sold locally at marinas and the hardware store. Shop locally at the Chaumont Country Store, wine and spirits, gift shops and don't forget about the Cottage Bakery & Gift Shop by the isthmus! Antique store in Three Mile Bay with many treasures. Our local farmers are selling fresh produce, honey and meats year-round.

Devoid of heavy commercialism, areas of Chaumont Bay offer relaxation, swimming, fishing, biking, walking trails, boating and camping. Winter sports include ice fishing, cross country skiing and snowmobiling. A two-mile nature trail at the Chaumont Barrens takes the hiker through a mosaic of rare habitats and a unique alvar landscape unlike any other natural area in the North-eastern United States.

Come to the Chaumont-Three Mile Bay area for a vacation of fishing, boating, shopping and relaxation! ■

Clayton

NEW YORK

This quintessential river town has undergone a revival in recent years to offer new places to stay, dine and play while preserving the small-town vacation traditions that has made it a favorite among visitors for more than a century.

Clayton brought in luxury with the 1000 Islands Harbor Hotel, an up-scale Four Diamond Rated AAA hotel perched along the St. Lawrence River. Balance that with the traditional family-run motels and fire-pit and volleyball net cottage colonies along the water and you learn why more and more people are basing their 1000 Islands vacation in Clayton.

The community is harvesting the fruitful products of its inland properties and staking a claim in the craft beverage market with a brewery, two wineries with vineyards and a pair of distilleries.

Clayton's museums immerse visitors in river culture. In 2022, USA TODAY 10 Best Readers' Choice named Clayton as "Best Small Town Cultural Scene." The Antique Boat Museum is home to North America's largest collection of wooden and classic boats, many of which still venture onto the river! The Thousand Islands Museum houses the Muskie Hall of Fame. Some say it's the local fishing community who came up with the famous Thousand Island Dressing that shares the region's name.

The Thousand Islands Arts Center showcases handmade textiles and offers exhibits and workshops for seasonal and short-term visitors. Private galleries and the Clayton Opera House bring the arts to Clayton for all to enjoy.

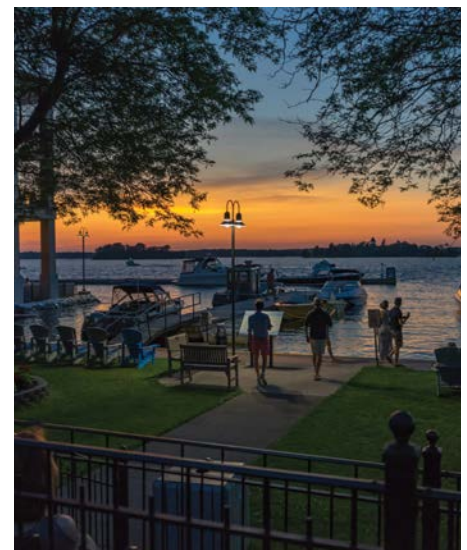

The clear waters of the St. Lawrence provide a fishing experience second to none. In fact, in 2022 the world record catch of smallmouth bass was set in Clayton on July 17 during the Bassmaster Elite Series tournament. Prior to this event, no angler in recorded sportfishing history had ever reached 100 pounds solely with smallmouth. After the tournament, Bassmaster Magazine named the St. Lawrence River and the 1000 Islands the number one bass fishing spot in the country!

Head downtown and discover small shops focused on river- and cottage-themed apparel, keepsakes and more. Enjoy a quick bite or meticulously planned meal while seated outdoors, often with a stunning river view. Make Clayton your first stop for diving into the 1000 Islands. ■

Gananoque

ONTARIO

Just west of the Thousand Islands International Bridge is riverside Gananoque, the perfect spot for a 1000 Islands vacation that mixes small-town charm, outdoor adventure and unforgettable experiences.

Fun awaits in “Gan,” from swimming at Joel Stone Park and biking along the Parkway to kayaking among the Admiralty Islands just off shore. It’s the only place in the region to view the islands from way above, via 1000 Islands Helicopter Tours or SkyDive Gan.

Gananoque’s easily accessible waterfront is the perfect launching point for cruising along the St. Lawrence River via either the many sightseeing and dining tours aboard City Cruises Gananoque or with a private fishing charter departing daily in season.

Catch a glimpse of island history at the nearby 1000 Islands History Museum and Thousand Islands Boat Museum, both located in the harbor! Just down the shoreline is the Thousand Islands Playhouse, offering professional theatre in an intimate venue right on the water with docking for arriving at shows via private watercraft!

An emerging culinary scene and mix of traditional, locally owned lodging and recognizable chains make Gananoque the ideal spot for a 1000 Islands vacation. ■

Henderson Harbor

NEW YORK

The town of Henderson and Henderson Harbor are part of The Golden Crescent shoreline, where the sunsets are among the best on Earth! Enjoy everything from fishing, sailing and waterskiing to hiking and biking in and around the harbor and its three New York State Parks!

The Henderson area is home to the Westcott Beach and Robert Wehle Southwick Beach state parks; all are located along the eastern shore of Lake Ontario and provide stunning views. The Black Pond Wildlife Management Area is a 526-acre natural wetland teeming with outdoor recreation opportunities.

Treat yourself to a variety of cuisines from Italian and American to family favorite diners and pizzerias. Accommodations range from family-priced to higher end.

Henderson Harbor is an ideal starting point for virtually every kind of fresh-water recreation. From sport fishing and charter-led outings to ice fishing, boating, waterskiing and sailing, it's all done in the harbor. Windy days allow for surfing and calm coves are popular for kayaking, and scuba diving among shipwrecks!

Launching a boat is easy at Westcott Beach State Park, the Henderson Boat Launch and the Stoney Creek Launch. There are eight marinas offering covered boat slips, repairs fuel. Henderson Harbor is a popular Safe Harbor for traveling boaters and sailors during inclement weather. Henderson Harbor is on the Great Lakes Seaway Trail, a 518-mile American Scenic Byway that follows Lake Ontario and the St. Lawrence River. Henderson is only a 15-minute trip from Interstate 81. The St. Lawrence River and Canada are within 30 miles. ■

Kingston

ONTARIO

Whenever you visit – spring, summer, fall, or winter – Kingston has a variety of activities for you.

Stay in a historic downtown inn or a modern hotel – either way, you'll feel pampered. Kingston offers a number of overnight stay packages year-round: choose your accommodation and pair it with a culinary, outdoor, family-friendly, or pampering experience.

In the summer, you can get out on Lake Ontario, through a kayak, SUP, or sailboat rental before you cool off with a beverage on a waterfront patio. In the winter, take a turn around our downtown public skating rink before you explore our unique boutiques or take in a concert. Get close to nature in one of the conservation areas close to the city; go birdwatching, hiking, or cross-country skiing. You can explore on your own: our walkable downtown means you are always just minutes away from your next dining, shopping, outdoor, or cultural experience. You can also take a guided tour: on a boat, touring the famous Thousand Islands; on a trolley, taking in 300 years of history throughout the city; or on a culinary walking tour. Sundays from June to September, visit the Katarokwi Indigenous Food & Art Market, and experience art, music, and culinary treats.

Kingston is known for its vibrant culinary scene. Here, you'll find everything from bāo to roti, casual comfort food to haute cuisine. Kingston chefs use fresh, seasonal ingredients from local farmers and producers. Craft beer aficionados can take a tour of some of our eight local breweries (and one cidery) or explore local our regional wine country with a guided tasting tour. Keep an eye out for “Kingstonlicious” events from January to March, featuring prix fixe menus to fit every budget, as well as special culinary events with guest chefs.

Kingston is also a community of artists and artisans. Explore our galleries, shops, and studios, and take home a one-of-a-kind creation, from jewelry and apparel to art and crafts. Home to a lively music scene, the city offers a variety of live performances throughout the year, both inside local venues and outdoors. ■

Sackets Harbor

NEW YORK

Sackets Harbor is a charming, historic community, nestled on the eastern shore of Lake Ontario.

Founded in 1801 by Augustus Sacket, the strategically located, deep-water harbor made it the perfect location for the American military headquarters on the Great Lakes during the War of 1812.

Today, Sackets Harbor is a vibrant lakeside community, boasting a newly-renovated waterfront and offering year-round events and activities. From spring poetry gatherings to waterfront concerts and downtown festivals in the summer, our warmer months are packed with things to do. Late summer into the cooler days of fall bring our annual marathon, quilt show, and Halloween bash. And the village comes alive with beautiful lights and festive decorations to brighten up the short days of winter and mark our annual Yuletide celebration. You'll find the dates of our largest events listed in the box on the next page and on our website: VisitSacketsHarbor.com/events.

Begin your visit at the Sackets Harbor Heritage Area Visitor Center, located in the original Augustus Sacket House that overlooks the harbor. The Visitor Center has an excellent orientation exhibit and video about the history and attractions in the area. From there, be sure to tour the sites related to the War of 1812 and our military history:

- Sackets Harbor Battlefield State Historic Site
- Pickering-Beach Museum
- 1812 Bicentennial Trail
- Madison Barracks and Fort Pike
- Military Cemetery

Discover the Battlefield's engaging exhibits and restored Navy Yard, and learn about the site's pivotal role in our nation's history. The grounds of the State Historic Site also include an interpretive trail that's both educational and picturesque, with sweeping vistas of Black River Bay and Lake Ontario.

2024 marks the return of the North American War of 1812 Grand Tactical in July. Sackets Harbor last hosted the Grand Tactical in 2010, which drew hundreds of re-enactors, historians, and authors, joined by a dozen watercraft, numerous musicians, dancers, and living history specialists, plus thousands of spectators.

In addition to our historic attractions, the village features a range of shops, galleries, restaurants, accommodations, and family-friendly attractions. Whether you're exploring by foot, bicycle, crosscountry ski, or snow shoe, our picturesque village streets and ADA-accessible trails make for relaxing adventures. Our marinas, boat launches, docks, and nearby beaches and state parks all provide a variety of outdoor and on-the-water activities as well. ■

Watertown

NEW YORK

The city of Watertown is the urban center of Northern New York, with the modern conveniences of national chain stores, restaurants and hotels co-existing with a healthy community of independent shopping, locally owned restaurants and recreational services that provide local flair and a friendly atmosphere.

One of Watertown's greatest treasures - the Black River - is just steps from the shops, wine bars, gastropubs and restaurants of downtown's Public Square. Seven miles of whitewater featuring 14 sets of class III and IV rapids offer thrilling and reliable adventures from spring through fall. The river has several great play spots for kayakers and has hosted national whitewater competitions.

The downtown area is also a hub for culture and community. A few local favorites include the seasonal Watertown Farm and Craft Market, the Summer Downtown Block Parties, Snowtown USA, and the Snowtown Film Festival among other community events and festivals. The Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library and Jefferson Country Historical Society offer a glimpse into Watertown's charming history, while the Sci-Tech Museum adds an educational touch.

The city's beautiful Olmsted-designed Thompson Park has golfing, tennis and Zoo New York. Dedicated to the bears, eagles and other animals of New York, the Zoo New York in Thompson Park is the only one of its kind. The park's picnic areas and stone pavilions can be reserved for private functions through the city Parks and Recreation Department. The park is also home to the Thompson Park Vortex, an unexplained phenomenon that is said to teleport those who discover it - unharmed - to another location within the park without explanation. The mysterious location is said to move within the park and visitors enjoy searching for it.

Winter in and around the Watertown area brings tubing, snowboarding and downhill skiing to the Dry Hill Ski Area as well as snowshoeing and Nordic skiing to Thompson Park. ■
